

nVent CADDY T-Grid Clip for Recessed Light Mounting Bracket

The nVent CADDY T-Grid Clip for Recessed Light Mounting Bracket is a spring clip that allows contractors to connect the recessed light adapter to a T-Grid application. Quickly snap the Clip onto the Telescoping Recessed Light Mounting Bracket without the need to screw onto a T-grid. Contractors can rest assured that lights are easily positioned within the T-grid application, ensuring less time spent on the ladder during installation.
